- ✓ IT, IoT & Digital Solutions for Logistics
- ✓ Consultants, System Integrators & Industry Experts

This is not a random new exhibition concept.

This is not a random new exhibition concept. It is a carefully developed platform built upon years of experience in organizing successful industrial trade events and understanding the needs of Indian manufacturing and logistics industries.

Successful exhibitions are built on relationships, not just exhibition halls.

Over the years, Bharti Media & Events has worked with leading corporations, government organizations, industry associations, technology providers and manufacturing companies across multiple sectors. This established industry network provides WAREMAT India Expo with a strong foundation from day one.

Every successful exhibition started with a first edition.

What transforms a first edition into an industry-leading event is the experience, credibility, market understanding and execution capability of the organizer.

WareEx India 2027 combines a fresh industry-focused concept with the proven exhibition expertise of Bharti Media & Events—creating a powerful business platform for the future of Warehousing, Material Handling, Logistics and Supply Chain.
